

The KINDERGARTEN NEWS

From Room #120 – Mrs. Hill-Rosato – 5/14/12

This newsletter is for this week and next week. For the next two weeks in kindergarten, we will continue to work with the short letter u sound in reading and reviewing the other short vowel sounds. We are spending more time reading simple readers independently so we can practice what we are learning. We will be doing our end of the year writing sample soon too. In math, we are finishing up our benchmarks we need to complete and we will be reviewing the skills taught this year. In science/social studies, we continue to work on our egg unit and plant unit. I will also be reading the "Mrs. Wishy Washy" books and talking about farm animals in general. It will be two busy weeks in kindergarten!

Reminders...

- Library books were due today.
- I am planning to work in the gardens on Thursday and probably on Friday. Please make e sure your child has proper shoes for gardening. If you are available to help on Thursday at 12:35 for 30 – 45 minutes to help the students weed the garden let me know.
- May 19th - Knowlton Knowledge Tricky Tray featuring Coach Bags or accessory paired with special prizes or gift certificates. Visit our school website for more information.
- May 30th – Evening Grow Healthy Open House
- June 1st- Everyone brings in juice for snack time for the remainder of the school year.
- Wednesday, June 6th – Team Color Day (Students need to wear sneakers and sunscreen.)
- Tuesday, June 12th – Kindergarten Celebration
- Thursday, June 14th – Last Day of School!

