This week's Coin Collection
CONTEST!
Don't forget your coins.

A magical week is coming soon!!!

I am pleased to announce the book fair theme this fall is The Enchanted Forest! Check out the exciting events that will take place below. The week before the fair, October 9-12th, we will be holding a contest to see which classes will be able to choose the books we add to the library from our fair. We will be running the contest Tuesday through Friday. The grade levels with the most money raised will have extra time to come to the fair to "library shop" with Mrs. Reber.

Here is how the contest will work:

1. Tuesday, Oct. 9th is "Penny & Nickel Day"- Bring in your pennies and nickels to put in your grade level's coin jar.
2. Wednesday, Oct. 10th is "Dime Day"- Bring in dimes to add to the pennies and nickels.
3. Thursday, Oct. 11th is "Quarter Day"- Quarters are topping off the jars today!
4. Friday, Oct. 12th, is "Any Coin Day"- Today is the last chance to bring in coins for the race!

An added challenge will be given to grades 4-6. If those students would like to donate paper money, they can put it into a different grade level collection jar. The paper money value will be subtracted from that grade level's coin total. All donations must be in the jars in the library no later than-noon on October 12th! Good luck!

But that is not all "Enchanted Friends"! During the fair shopping week we will also be having theme days. See below to plan out what you need to wear!

October 15th is Make Believe Monday- Come dressed as your favorite book character!

October 16th is Toadstool Tuesday- Wear red and white!

October 17th is Whimsy Wednesday- Wear a crazy outfit!

October 18th is Pajamarama Thursday! Come to school in your PJs!
